Creative Design Team Educator

MOROCCANOIL.

Emmett Henley has had an uninterrupted career working as a stylist for over 20 years. His positions in the beauty industry have included stylist, consultant, product developer, salon owner, education director, platform/runway artist, editorial stylist and creative director. He completed advanced training at Horst Salon & Spa in Minneapolis and Dudley's Cosmetology University in North Carolina for highly-textured hair types. Emmett has worked with some of the industry's most distinguished talent, such as Sally Rogerson, Ted Gibson, Kevin Murphy and more. Immersing himself and becoming certified in new techniques, procedures and technologies allows Emmett to bring current trends, information and tools to his clients and stylists. Emmett has been recognized for his quality work and excellence in national and local publications such as SELF, Minnesota Monthly, Seattle MET, Salon Services' Viewpoint, Minneapolis Star Tribune, Bangstyle Online and Modern Salon.
