Advance your learning with this full day class featuring, Targeting Specific Skin Conditions and I Profit:

Targeting Specific Skin Conditions

Ready to tackle the Big Four? Acne, aging, hyperpigmentation and sensitive or rosacea prone skin are no strangers to the treatment room. This class will help you to recognize, recommend, treat and upsell any skin condition. What about the lesser known conditions? We can treat them too. This class is a must for any esthetician who wants real results.

I Profit

Retail is a key profit driver in any business, and there is a direct correlation to retailing and increasing client loyalty and retention. The key to successful retailing starts with identifying your business goals and putting a plan in place in order to reach them. This class will share with you the IMAGE way of building business, how to successfully turn your treatments into retail sales and will help you master the art of selling to each client type. We'll also share how merchandising, social media and events can help you.
